Profile

Eric William Carter graduated from law school at the age of 24. He began his legal career working in the administrative law field, trying hundreds of Medical Fee Dispute Resolution cases before the State Office of Administrative Hearings in Austin, Texas. Since that time, his focus has remained on the firm's litigation docket, preparing and pursuing the firm's cases for trial before the courts. In addition to his civil litigation practice, Eric William Carter has also gained extensive experience through his appointments as Guardian Ad Litem, an agent of the Courts assigned to work for the benefit of particular minor children in Harris County.
